

CONFIDENCE Through PERFORMANCE™

Creative workshops for Primary Schools

Helping children find their voice, believe in themselves and shine!

WELCOME

Thank you for your interest in Confidence Through Performance™.

This workshop programme has been designed to help children develop confidence, communication skills and self-belief through engaging singing, drama and creative activities.

Every workshop is interactive, inclusive and tailored to meet the individual needs of your pupils and school.

Whether you're planning a wellbeing day, enrichment activity or transition programme, our aim is simple:
To inspire every child to discover their voice, believe in themselves and celebrate their achievements.

Thank you for taking the time to learn more about our workshops.
I look forward to working with you and supporting your pupils on their confidence journey.

Clare Hill

Every child has a voice.
Our workshops help them find it, use it and be proud of it.

Meet Claire

Hello, I'm Claire!
I'm the founder of Claire Hill Creative Arts and
The Singing Academy.

With a passion for helping children build confidence through music, drama and performance, I create engaging workshops that encourage creativity, resilience and self-belief.
Every child deserves the opportunity to feel heard, valued and capable.

My workshops provide a safe, inclusive environment where children can develop communication skills, express themselves creatively and grow in confidence.

Our vision

To inspire children to discover their voice, build confidence and celebrate who they are through creative performance.

We believe that confidence grows when children feel safe to try new things, express themselves and be celebrated for their individuality.

Our workshops encourage every child to:

Believe in themselves

Communicate with confidence

Work collaboratively

Develop resilience

Celebrate their achievements

We believe confidence is the key to unlocking potential.
